Application Form

Carrington House Hotel, Bournemouth

11th – 14th September 2009

Cost : Members £173 (But see below)

Non members £183

With considerable help from John Finnamore and Maureen Avins (our local “representatives”) we have booked the Carrington House Hotel for our Bournemouth break. The hotel is about 10 minutes from the East Cliff in a quiet residential road. There is plenty of parking and a garden with tables and chairs. There is a good-sized indoor swimming pool with changing rooms, towels provided. The bridge room is on the ground floor (much bigger than the Swindon Hilton) with air conditioning and a break out area. The dining room also is on the ground floor, very pleasant, with waiter service for dinner, and buffet breakfast. It is arranged so that we could have a separate area down a few steps (like the Swindon Hilton). There is a large reception/bar area and a lift.

The rooms they are holding for us are in the most modern part (albeit 30 years old); so the single rooms are purpose-built and not broom cupboards (they have desks and an armchair, not squashed in). They have some larger single rooms which John didn't see but because they are available 11-14 September they would be included in our rooms, on a first come first served basis. The double and twin rooms are also generously sized.

Please note The hotel is not prepared to offer a single price whatever the occupancy. The price above is for double occupancy of a twin/double room or for occupancy of a single room. Should you want single occupancy of a double room there will be an extra charge of £60 per person.

Cheques, payable to Sobell Bridge Club, by 1 August 2009 to
